Action Halted By School Board On Tree Cutting Plan

Faced with complaints from all sides, the governing board of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District last night rejected all bids for cutting of trees on 17 acres of land at Highland Greens at Lake Tahoe. The protests charged that much of the proposed tree cutting was not required and that "a basic law of good planning was being violated."

How this action will effect the early construction of the new junior high school at Tahoe, planned for 1968 was not immediately resolved.

The controversy over the protection of the trees had been carried to county and state levels.

William B. Layton, manager of the Tahoe City Public Utility District and civic leader prepared and circulated letters pointing out the fact that no plans for the projected junior high school on the site have been drawn and that the trees should be unmoored at least until this is done.

In a letter to the school board, Layton said in part: "Good planning dictates that no excavation or clearing work is ever done for construction of any structure, be it a house, office building or school building until the preliminary plans have been approved and adopted. You don't have any such plans and won't have for several months. How can you possibly make a major decision with regards to clearing without first adopting preliminary plans?"

The Placer County Board of Supervisors got into the picture Tuesday and opposed the school board's plan and asked the latter to give an explanation. Albert Marino, chief of environmental health, was directed by the supervisors to warn the Lahontan Water Quality Control Board of the potential damage to Lake Tahoe from erosion and flooding if the land is cleared.

Other protests from a number of sources were heard and the board decided to drop the matter pending the outcome of discussions.

LAKE ECHOES

BY BETHEL

"Go Go, Gertie" is the theme of the VFW Nevada State Auxiliary this year under the direction of Gertie Caldwell. It will also be the theme of the Halloween party to be held on October 28 at the Crystal Bay Club. Costumes, champagne, dancing, fun, prizes and a witching hour buffet at 11 p.m. will be the features of the evening. Richard and Donna Killian are commander and president of the Post and Auxiliary and invite all VFW members, guests and friends and fun fiends, to help celebrate the upteenth annual party.

Pay Dean of Kings Beach is recuperating at home after hospitalization at Washoe Medical Center in Reno. Also home to Tahoe Vista after surgery, is Mae Critchley who was a guest at Washoe for several weeks. Reports are satisfactory progress — thanks to correction of past experiences. Moved out of intensive care at Washoe Medical Center due to improvement of his condition, is George Phillips of Tahoe Vista and Reno. Wife, Dean, reports satisfactory progress.

Bill Mally of Incline Village celebrated his birthday October 21st with a family dinner. Present for dinner and family fun were wife, Joan, and children, Jeff and Karen, and sister, and family, Bern and Jack Franklin and daughter, Fae. Bill was also surprised at a birthday party at the office of the Crystal Bay Development Company, where he is employed. Coffee, cake and conversation made for a happy hour.

Terry and Shirley Peluso and children, Serry Ann and Terry of Oakland visited his aunts and their husbands, Jerry and Johnny Rayburn and Theresa and Tom Sutton at Incline Beach for the weekend.

Johnny and Dick Lavery enjoyed a couple of days hunting at Lovelock.

Must have been just a hunting trip because we didn't get any of that famous Rayburn venison stew!

Benny Ferrari visited parents.

Ben and Nora Ferrari at Kings Beach, having come up from Santa Clara College for homecoming at the university at Reno.

VFW Auxiliary initiated two new members, Myrna Bulman and Joyce King at their Wednesday night meeting at the Nevada Lodge. President Donna Killian officiated at the meeting which was attended by Vera Wood, Pauline Talcott, Pearl Draney, Louise Walter, Dorothy Bulman.

Members of the Auxiliary attending a meeting of the Carson City Post on Wednesday were Donna Killian, Pauline Talcott, Vera Wood, Myrna Bulman, Dorothy Bulman and Joyce King.

Reading 25 years ago in the Sierra Sun last week, it was interesting to note that the level of Lake Tahoe was 6226.15 compared with the same time this year — 6226.04!

Lucille Grisham of Incline Village entertained at luncheon and cards on Wednesday. Among those present were Velda Farris, Gwen Wood, Theresa Sutton, Shirley Robinson, Velma Clark and Vera Ozols.

Mex and Mae Springer of Incline Village and Major Tom Lyon and family of Reno have returned from a camping and hunting trip in Northern Nevada. The trip was pronounced a success having overcome the vicissitudes of camping and having sufficiently replenished their food lockers from the hunt.

Major Lyon, a longtime family friend, has been transferred to Hill Field, near Ogden, Utah, where he will be stationed.

Irene Kaiser of Incline Village enjoyed a three weeks trip to visit daughter, Donna, in Omaha, Nebraska. She also visited other relatives in that area while there.

Don and Nelle Barkhurst of Astoria, Oregon, spent several days at Lake Tahoe visiting friends who were happy to hear first hand accounts of their life in a new area and business.

Ed and Dorothy Moore are back to their Reno residence after the summer at Lake Tahoe. Dorothy has returned to Gray Reids where she was previously employed.

Senator Roger Bissett and Assemblyman Angelo Petrini enjoyed cocktails at the home of Fred and Almasa Schultz at Incline Village before proceeding to the Chataux for a party in honor of Governor Grant Sawyer. The party was given by Art Wood for residents of Incline Village and their friends.

Dr. Joseph Furlong of Incline Village attended the medical convention held at the South Shore last week.

Lydia Circle met at the Kings Beach home of Vera Daegling with Arlene Reynolds as co-hostess who welcomed guests to an afternoon luncheon followed by games. Among those present were Roma Young, Pearl Draney, Sue Dwyer, Betty Baxter, Carol Harris, Helene Hawkins, Noreen Marx, Marguerite Ashton, Kay Felte, Marian Mueller, Hilda Ross, Jane Tenneson, Sue Dwyer, Anita Nellin, Gladys McClanahan, Helen Scott, Laura Willson, Marjorie Stafford, Marge Cole, Ruby Weaver, Caryl Wilbur, Ruth Ferrium.

The next meeting will be at the Incline Beach home of Pearl Draney on November 10th. The theme for Lydia Circle this year will be on Prayer and Inner Self-Improvement.

Tom and Hazel Steele of Palm Desert celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on October 16th with their daughter and son in law, Dr. Joseph and Barbara Furlong of Incline Village. However the main event was observed at Kentfield before joining the Furlongs at Lake Tahoe. Congratulations to the Steeles — hope the day was a happy one.

Jack Crom of Incline Village is running for election as trustee of the Incline Village General Improvement District, a non-paying position, but a busy one. Jack, his wife, Norine and children, Joe, Judey, Susie, Chris, Sean and Mike, have been residents of Incline for the past four years.

Coming from Tahoe City to wish their father, Carl Becholdt, in Reno, a happy 80th birthday, October 15, were sons, Bill and family and Carl Jr., and family, Messrs. and Messdames Sillery, Kirkman, Fassett, Hansen, Kregel, Karcher and Dr. and Mrs. T. Hackley of San Francisco, Mrs. A. Heavey and Mrs. C. Maurgeri of Reno and Fred and Elizabeth Thompson of Sonoma. Angelo and Christine Bonino of Tahoe City came down later for dinner with Carl and Yvonne.

Yvonne's ingenious talent for the unusual in decor amused the birthday boy and guests. Conforming to tradition Carl cut his birthday cake which was trimmed in red and white with an elegant gold "80" adorning the top.

Messrs. and Messdames Aweeka, Davidson, Rablin of the Truckee area attended a Christian Science lecture in Reno on Sunday. Coffee and cake at the Lucille Bick home in Reno were served the visitors and all exchanged news of Lake Tahoe.

Friends will be happy to know that Dr. Larry and Alberta Nelson and children are now residing in Reno, having moved from Apts. The Nelsons have many friends in the Tahoe-Truckee area where they previously made their home.

Florence Brown, former Tahoe City resident, and past charter president of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Emblem Club 347, will be installed as charter president of the newly organized Emblem Club in Santa Cruz next month, according to word from friends.

Florence also served as a director of the Lake Tahoe Sierra Chamber of Commerce for several years and was active in civic affairs. Husband, Gordon, has improved health-wise since the move to Santa Cruz, friends will be glad to know.

Joe Crom, son of Jack and Norine Crom of Incline Village, was confined to home a couple of days after the removal of four impacted wisdom teeth.

Esther Richie of Marysville was a houseguest of Bethel Van Tassel and son, Pieter, last weekend.

Happy birthday to Jack Felte of Kings Beach who observed his natal day with wife, Kay, and family, on October 21st with family dinner party.

And happy birthday to Mrs. A. Lugal on October 17th, mother of Fran Cernusak of Kings Beach and Richard Van Tassel at Los Altos on October 23rd.

The Lions Even the Series

In a hard fought contest, witnessed by a record crowd, the Kings Beach Lions emerged victorious over the Tahoe Lake Tigers. This second of a three game series evened the record at one game apiece.

Mitch Frazier, son of the Tahoe Lake coach, was a game hero for the Kings Beach "Little Guys" after engineering a 40 yard drive to the end zone. Bill Gard put on an amazing exhibition of pass receiving to help spark the Lions offense.

In the 3rd quarter, Tahoe Lake cleverly eluded the Lions secondary for their well-earned six points.

The fourth quarter saw Dave Plevel slice pass the right end of Tahoe Lake and bulldoze 55 yards

Dave Plevel, and Chuck Pennino as the outstanding players of the game.

The third and final game of the series will be played at the high school on Saturday, October 29, at 10:30 a.m. Come and root for the team of your choice! These games are outstanding for their sportsmanship and good play by both fine teams.

TAHOE LAKE SCHOOL

Kindergarten, Mrs. Henke—Happy Birthday was sung to Scott Ballenger and Mark Harris this week.

Rick Marier, Randy Cosby, Mark Harris, Heidi Money introduced mothers when they visited school this week.

We had fun making a Halloween Owl that will stand up. Outstanding ones were made by Norman Huckle, Scott Ballenger, Mark Farchi, Denis Delantoni and Laura Sullivan.

First Grade, Miss Bean — Our class is really doing lots of good work these days. The best printers this week were: Ann Marie Brund, Dean Austin, and Peter Onorato. Star papers on coloring were done by: Peter Onorato, Mike Mariani, Sheila Thomson, and Michelle Gregor. All our students have finished two and a half ore-primer readers now.

First Grade, Miss Carter — William Haas, Kathleen Willey, Susan Grigoleit, Pamela Bundren, Gayle Swan, Nicola Nicholas, Andrew Carpenter, Craig Hodgkins, and Shelly Bailey got 100 per cent on their vocabulary tests this week.

William Haas, Susan Grigoleit, Leon Austin and Pamela Bundren did the best printing papers. Gayle Swan, Karen Dwyer, Susan Grigoleit, Pamela Bundren and Craig Hodgkins did star math papers.

The best color papers were done by Susan Grigoleit, Shelly Bailey, Kathleen Willey and Pamela Bundren.

Second Grade, Mrs. Steinhauser — The children enjoyed the picture of John Glenn which came from N.A.S.A. Mark Gregor and Matthew VonDerAhe are both showing excellent improvement in manuscript writing.

The class is looking forward to the field trip to the coast guard weather station.

Fifth Grade, Mrs. Kelly — Everyone has been doing quit well with their geography assignments. In a recent test Bill Alrich and Mike Allen received the highest grades. While grading the tests I discovered a few children thought we live in Oregon or Washington instead of California. However, this isn't too bad as on a previous test a few students thought we lived in South America, the Eastern Hemisphere, and one student thought we lived on Mars (maybe those flying saucers are real!).

In our recent review unit spelling bee the boys beat the girls without much trouble. Our big winner was Kenny Gonzales.

The class has been making paper mache "animule" as an art project. Some fine "animules" are being made by Kurt Boyer, Bobby Pundt, Peter Johnson, Bill Anderson and many others.

Seventh Grade, Mr. Barben — A big thanks to parents who let themselves into a baffling night last Wednesday. Students, the teachers and parents participated. The students solved the problems in that great area of mystery and intrigue "new math". A thank you, also to the students who courageously came and were asked to demonstrate their newly attained skills of base and equations.

Second Grade, Mrs. Read — Helpers this week were: President, Baci Perata; monitors were Brian Pundt, Anne Gardner and Joe Kolinsky. The ball monitors were Megan Evans and Larry DeWalt.

We are planning a trip to the coast guard weather station next week. The class has completed weather booklets and is learning about weather instruments now.

Bobby VanWetter and David Onorato have completed a chart on the properties of air.

Third Grade, Mrs. Carnell — The children are making paper mache puppets to go with the Halloween plays they are writing and producing.

The class will present their plays to the primary department on Halloween Monday.

Fourth Grade, Mrs. Evans — Those getting perfect scores in this weeks spelling were Robert Banta, Cathy Thomsen, Mike Carnell, Nancy Osineup, Brad Onorato, Tim Clark, Vickie Austin, Kim Randolph, Scott Smith, Linda Cosby, Fred Marier, David Bryan, Pam Baker, Fred Wertz and Howie Carnell.

Interesting Indian projects have been turned in by Fred Wertz, Mike Hart, David Bryan, Cathy Thomsen, Cheryl O'Brien, Glenn Holley, Steve Nash, Doug Young and Scott Smith.

Fifth Grade, Mrs. Diurni — The class survived the annual California Achievement Tests. Using IBM cards for machine scoring we won't boast about our scores until the machines finish but we will at least brag that we got the "little bubbles" on the cards marked and didn't bend a single card!

EL MONTE FIRM IS GOOVING HIGHWAY

Concut Inc., of El Monte, Calif., will be grooving short sections of Interstate 80 freeway lanes at five locations west of Donner Lake following the firm's successful low bid of $6,527.95 on a California Division of Highways' contract.

There were three other firms bidding, according to officials at the Marysville district office.

Longitudinal grooves will be cut into the pavement surface to improve safety over the mountainous section of highway.

Six weeks will be required after the project gets underway a month from now and a minimum of one lane will be kept open at all times between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. There will be no interruption to traffic after working hours.

Other bidders were: Superior Contracting Co., Oakland, $7,395.30; Junt Process Co., Santa Fe Springs, Calif., $24,900; and Industrial Diamond Services Inc., Paramount, Calif., $27,888.

Frank Starr Mosher, 63, a veteran printer, died in Auburn Monday. He learned his trade on the Grass Valley Republican and when the paper moved to Truckee in 1872, under the management of Frink and Hayden, he came here and remained for several years.

Miss Ximena McGlashan of Truckee was married last Friday to Jack Howard of Oakland. The bride is an internationally recognized authority on butterflies and her collection here is the most complete in the country.

Dell Bachelder, 26, a Truckee man with the Canadian army in Europe, was wounded in the battle of the Somme. Last April he was shot three times in the battle of Ypres, recovered and returned to the front.

Matt Green of Tahoe City, contractor and builder of lake resorts and summer homes, has left for the east on a two weeks business trip.

Among the sports who went huntign to Honey Lake last Saturday were Pete Fay, Tex O'Neill, William Fowler, Robert Koepke, Dan Smith and Karl Kiehofer. All returned home Tuesday afternoon.

Congressman John E. Raker enjoyed a trip to Lake Tahoe last Friday when in this vicinity.

Truckee voters gave President Roosevelt 330 votes and his opponent, Alf Landon 69. At Tahoe, Roosevelt received 113 votes and Landon 42.

Truckee Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star elected Vernie Wood as worthy matron and J. H. Percy, worthy patron. Jennie Canady is the retiring worthy matron.

Naomi Rebekah Lodge No. 2, the second oldest in the state, is preparing to observe its 66th anniversary November 11.

John Thornton, local Ford dealer, has left for Detroit to see the new 1937 models at the factory.

Musical Trio Now
Starting 3rd Week

CRYSTAL BAY — Entering their third smash week at North Lake Tahoe's Nevada Lodge, the wild and talented Delasandro & Tonelli Trio has won over thousands of Tahoe entertainment buffs as loyal fans.

Appearing nightly in Nevada Lodge's plush Topaz Room, the Trio provides an endlessly versatile program of swinging music, fast-paced wit and whatever else comes to their creative minds. "The freshest music-comedy act to hit Tahoe in years," said one critic.

Organized just five years ago, the Delasandro & Tonelli Trio became solid favorites throughout the Pacific Northwest; the current Nevada Lodge stand has been their first penetration of the busy Tahoe-Reno-Vegas circuit.

Frank Delasandro heads the group, displaying his virtuosity on ing Auburn.

The Truckee-Tahoe Rotary Club is sponsoring a Halloween Party in Veterans Memorial Building for all youngsters and their parents on Friday. Bernard Corrigan, high school teacher, is in charge.

Rev. P. H. Willis presided at the wedding of Miss Eve Moro to Angelo Besio at a ceremony in Sparks October 29. Best man was Robert Leamon and Mrs. Gino Giovannoni was matron of honor. Both Mr. and Mrs. Besio graduated from the local schools. He is employed at Rosarini's.

Rain and snow have eliminated the fire danger in the Truckee-Tahoe area, Ranger H. I. Snider reports. There were 25 fires during the season, none of which was over a quarter acre in size, setting a new record.

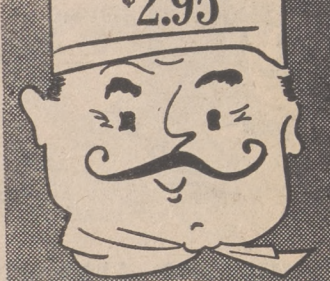

Harry Johanson, Tahoe constable, was elected president of the Lake Tahoe Ski Club Friday. Carl Bechdolt, Jr., is the new vice president; Douglas Smith, secretary; A. M. Anderson, treasurer and Floyd Carnell, chief of the hill. Retiring president Anderson treated the club to refreshments.

piano, sax and bass; Denny Tonelli masters the drums, and is the sparkplug for the whimsical comedy which typifies the act.

Rounding out the Trio is youthful Ron Andreas, whose mastery of the accordion is a treat for all to hear — bringing the accordion to new importance in arrangements of contemporary tunes, traditional standards and show tunes. Ron is the complementary sparkplug for Denny in the comic cut-up department, giving the Delasandro & Tonelli Trio a flavor unmatched by any other group in the west.

Law enforcement officers recommend outdoor light for added home security. Businesses use Nite Guards as economical after-dark service aids. Winter morning and evening ranch chores are easier with automatic on-at-sunset, off-at-sunrise area lighting.

DONNER DOINGS

By Mrs. Carson "Vi" White

The fall colors are beautiful this year with no rain and frosty mornings, but they just can't compare with the splash of vividness in the east.

Just returned home after driving from New Jersey where son Lieu tenant Charlie graduated from another electronics class. Flew to New York from San Francisco, climbed aboard a little four-place plane for a short hop to Red Bank, New Jer-legislature candidate; Frank Chilton, county assessor candidate; Kimbuck Williams, and Charles Wilson, candidates for Placer County auditor and Gene Chapple, candidate for state legislature.

Placer County Supervisor Bill Briner moderated the session which was arranged by the North Tahoe Republican Women's Club. Phyllis Beck is president of the group.

More than half of the 17,997 municipalities listed in the United States Census of Government in 1962 had less than 1,000 inhabitants.

sey, took the taxi that was waiting for me and headed for Fort Monmouth and Squire Hall where the graduation was held at 8 a.m., October 13th. Whew! Everything clicked just fine and had five minutes to spare!

After a couple of hours of processing out, we took off for California and had a close look at the beautiful country side. Found that those bright colors on post cards area really for real!

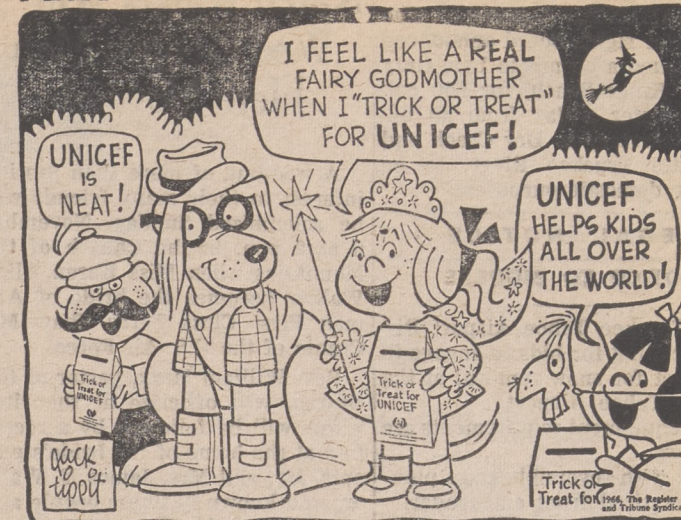

Found out too what freeways are — the turnpikes are terrific and there is no debris along them, no beer cans, papers or anything, but they can be costly at times. At each gate an IBM card is given to you, then whenever or wherever you get off, you pay for the amount of miles traveled over the highway. Crossing the state of Pennsylvania for instance costs $3.90.

We had a nice trip though and made a quick tour of the Chicago Museum, the U.S. Mint in Denver, Garden of the Gods in Colorado Springs, Vail ski area, Salt Lake City and home. Had all kinds of weather. It's a long trip in a Volkswagen and we're mighty glad to be back.

Charlie will be going to Korea next month and is enjoying his leave. Finally got to go sailing on our boat.

Edgar Magney is back sailing his tri-maran Seven Winds on Donner Lake. He was enjoying the winds at the Bahamas this summer and is expecting to skim over the lake for a few more weeks. He and Emmett Whitney are working on the top of Squaw Peak at the Federal Aviation Agency installation there.

The Sierra Tinker Belles Garden Club had a delightful trip to Nevada City Thursday. The fall colors of the maple, dogwood and oak trees were lovely and the liquid amber trees and pistacio trees in town were outstanding.

Unfortunately numerous trees and landmarks have been removed for the freeway that's going right through town. It's a pity.

Driving along highway 20 is a delightful experience though anytime of the year, but the fall is the nicest.

Moyer Is Chosen On State Board

Gordon Moyer, the current president of the Tahoe Forest Hospital District in Truckee, was recently elected as a director on the board for the Association of California Hospital Districts, Incorporated. This association represents the entire state of California, particularly as it applies to the sixty-six district hospitals in the state.

Functions of the association provide a media for all district hospitals to share and work out ideas for improvement of hospital operations much of their work is closely connected with the state legislature as far as legal matters for district hospitals are concerned.

Moyer was nominated by the associations nominating committee by reason of its particular desire to have a representative on its board of directors from this area. Moyer's selection and approval was made by the Tahoe Forest Hospital Board of Directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Moyer who reside at Tahoe City, spent a few days at Santa Barbara, attending the annual meeting of the hospital association. Moyer, who has been on the board of directors for the Tahoe Forest Hospital for nine years, is scheduled for re-election at the November general election, along with Joe Joymt from Tahoe City, Ray Hintz, Clinton Shane and Paul E. Shively of Truckee.

KOSTAKIS TO AID IN WILSON'S CAMPAIGN

James B. Kostakis, who drew strong support in the primary election as a candidate for Placer County auditor, this week endorsed Charles Wilson for the position, which will be filled by voters at the general election on November 8.

Kostakis, though eliminated from the race in the June balloting drew heavy backing in the Roseville area.

Holder of an accounting degree from Sacramento State College and currently employed by the Southern Pacific Company in Roseville, Kostakis said that he is working actively toward Wilson's election.

"In light of my continued interest in the Placer County political scene," Kostakis declared, "I am logically interested in seeing the best possible selection made to fill any elective or appointive office. For that reason I have pledged my support to Charles Wilson in his campaign for the auditor's post."

PORTION OF 'RESTLESS ONES' TO BE SHOWN

A section of the highly-acclaimed Billy Graham motion picture, "The Restless Ones," soon to be shown in Reno, will be previewed in the Church Hall of Sierra Bible Church, located in the Sherritt Building, downtown Truckee, Sunday, October 30 at 7 o'clock.

This all-color picture which has had a tremendous impact upon people in many of America's largest cities will be shown in Centennial Coliseum in Reno Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 4 to 6, with showings each evening and an additional afternoon showing the last day.

Johnny Love, representing the group sponsoring the Reno presentation of "The Restless Ones" will bring the preview section to Truckee and speak briefly about its three-day appearance.

There is no charge for this local preview and the public is invited to this condensed portion of "The Restless Ones."

OFFICIAL VISIT

District Attorneys Harold Berliner and Daniel Higgins of Nevada and Placer counties, accompanied by Deputies Thomas Hart and Joseph Flannigan of Higgins' office, were in the Truckee and North Tahoe communities calling on judges and other officials. It is proposed to work out a tentative formula for handling new traffic laws, especially the so-called implied consent regulation for accused drunk drivers.

California is the leading plum-producing state.

WORLD TRAVELERS PLAY GOLF IN EAST

Local world travelers, Preston Patnoud and Stena Leufgen stopped over on their trip at Kalamazoo, Michigan, last week and Pat had a chance to golf with Plainwell's Larry Flagel, his brother in law and witnessed the latter get a hole in one on the Orchard Hills Golf Course.

The Kalamazoo Gazette gave the feat quite a writeup. The story said in part: "He aced the 330-yard dog-leg hole Sunday — his second hole in one on No. 12 in the last four years. Flagel, with playing partners, Jerry Shumaker of Otsego and Preston Patnoud of Truckee, Calif., looking on hooked his tee shot over the corner of the woods which protect the green."

Patnoud said they missed the snow storms which plagued much of the middle west. They will leave New York December 7.
